

10
Places
You should not miss in Hatyai-
Songkhla

Hatyai-Songkhla
Colorful City

- ① Wat Hatyai Nai (Hatyai Nai Temple)
- ② Klonghae Floating Market
- ③ Chang Puak Elephant Camp
- ④ Hatyai Park
- ⑤ Tone Nga Chang Waterfall
- ⑥ Kim Yong Market
- ⑦ Asean Trade Night Market & Greenway Night Market
- ⑧ Hatyai Magic Eye 3D Museum
- ⑨ Street Art in Songkhla Old Town (26 km)
- ⑩ Water Park of Songkhla Zoo (28 km)

(Not to Scale)

1 | Wat Hatyai Nai (Hatyai Nai Temple)

Location: Petchakasem Road (Near U-Tapao Bridge)

Highlight: Hatyai Nai temple where “Phra Phuttha Hattha Mongkhon” is situated, a large reclining buddha image measuring 35 meters long, 15 meters tall, and 10 meters wide. It is highly revered by both thai and foreign tourists and it is believed to be the third largest reclining buddha image in the world.

Operating hours: Daily from 8 am. to 5 pm.

2 | Klonghae Floating Market

Location: Lopburirameth Road

Highlight: Klonghae Floating Market, the first floating market in southern Thailand, is built with an attempt to restore the way of life and culture along the canal. It was officially opened in August 2008 and became popular very quickly for thai and foreign tourists. Local products and cuisine made by locals are available here. This is a night floating market worth visiting.

Operating hours: Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 3 pm. to 9 pm.

3 | Chang Puak Elephant Camp

Location: Kanchanawanit Road (Near Hatyai Park)

Highlight: Your trip to Thailand will not complete without experiencing an elephant ride. Chang Puak Elephant Camp is one of the most famous tourist attractions in Hatyai, where everyone is able to experience the elephant riding and have a chance to get close to the elephant by touching them, feeding them with fruits and also taking pictures with them. In addition, everyone can enjoy elephant talent show, ATV, gun shooting, traditional thai massage and etc.

Operating hours: Daily from 8 am. to 5 pm.

4 | Hatyai Park

Location: Karnchanawanich Road

Highlight: If you are looking for a place to see the bird's eye view of the city and beautiful sunset at the top of the hill, Hatyai Park will be a perfect place for you. There is a Hatyai cable car station located at the peak of Hatyai Park, where visitors can have a spectacular view of the city. In Hatyai Park, you can find the biggest Buddha statue in blessing posture in southern Thailand. Furthermore, Thailand's biggest white jade Guan Yin statue can be found here as well.

Operating hours: Daily from 8 am. to 9 pm.

5 | Tone Nga Chang Waterfall

Location: Hatyai - Rattaphum Road
(About 26 kilometers from Hatyai city)

Highlight: Tone Nga Chang waterfall is a seven tiers waterfall and it is considered as one of the most attractive waterfalls in southern Thailand. Out of the seven tiers, the third level is the most beautiful where the name of the waterfall came from. There are two waterfalls at this level, flowing separately forming two large streams resembling the elephant's tusks (Tone-Nga-Chang means "waterfall like the elephant's tusks" in the local dialect). The water flows all year round. This unspoiled nature is an ideal place for trekking and sightseeing.

Operating hours: Daily from 8 am. to 5 pm.

6 | Kim Yong Market

Location: Supasarn Rangsan Road

Highlight: Hatyai is truly shopping paradise in southern Thailand. Kim Yong Market is a place that you can find rows of shopping alley. It is said to have everything you need; such as spices, cashew nuts, fashionable clothes, souvenirs and dried fruit products. If you still have time, why not heading to Santisuk market which is situated round the corner. There are some advices when going to Kim Yong market, due to the complicated structure of the shopping lanes, getting lost is very normal. If you are lost, do not panic and enjoy the shopping.

Operating hours: Daily from 8 am. to 6 pm.

7

Asean Trade Night Market & Greenway Night Market

Location: Karnchanawanich Road (Near Hatyai City Bus Terminal)

Highlight: Hatyai is a sleepless city. If you would like to go out for shopping at night, Asean Trade Night Market is the place you are looking for. Items ranging from cool looking T-shirt, bags, shoes, accessories and many other things can be found here, in this lively market. If all these things cannot fulfill your satisfaction, you can head down to Greenway Night Market which is walking distance away. In Greenway Night Market, there are more shops available including the second-hand shops lining up for night shoppers.

Operating hours: Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 5 pm. to 10 pm.

8

Hatyai Magic Eye 3D Museum

Location: Karnchanawanich Road (Near Hatyai City Bus Terminal)

Highlight: The Hatyai Magic Eye 3D Museum should not be missed. Inside the museum, you will be impressed by more than 100 of 3D pictures across various themes; such as underwater world, Ice world, animals, fantasy, Egyptian and etc. Hatyai Magic Eye 3D Museum will certainly provide you a sense of realistic art and make your trip at Hatyai unforgettable. Do not forget to bring your own camera and create your own style of postures to take pictures with these artworks.

Operating hours: Daily from 9 am. to 9 pm.

9

Street Art in Songkhla Old Town

Location: Songkhla Old Town.

Highlight: Street Arts of Songkhla Old Town have been famous wall paintings among tourists that always prefer to take photo with. The paintings depict some stories of Songkhla Old Town in the past. The main point of the street arts is at the famous Hub-Ho-Hin building, the Red Rice Mill on Nakhon Nok Rd. The other 2 paintings are on Yaring Rd. and Raman Rd. Local food and desserts are recommended as well as those attractive old buildings and houses. Songkhla Old Town can be visited everyday all year long.

Operating hours: everyday.

10 | Water Park of Songkhla Zoo

Location: Songkhla Zoo in Tambon Khao Rubchang.

Highlight: Water Park of Songkhla Zoo is the first ever water park in southern Thailand, covering over 9 Rais of highland that gives the feeling of floating in the air with very nice scenic view in front. The water park provides pools for small children, teenagers, and adults along its whirled pool along natural track and scenery of Songkhla such as Tinsulanonda Bridges, Cat and Rat Islands. A large pool with 7-meter high slider is also equipped. Attractive fountain, falls, and rest areas are provided including other services.

Operating hours: Everyday during 10.30 AM - 5.00 PM.

Tourism Authority of Thailand
(Hat Yai Office)

1/1 Nipatuthit 3 Rd., Soi 2, Hatyai, Songkhla 90110 Thailand.

Tel : (66) 74-243747

(66) 74-238518

(66) 74-231055

Fax : (66) 74-245986

✉ : tathatyai@tat.or.th

🌐 : songkhlatourism.org

f : facebook.com/tathatyaifriend